Two Men Held In Plot To Blow Up School

CLINTON, Tenn.—Two young men were accused today of plotting to dynamite the integrated high school here last September. Authorities said a third man was being sought.

Avon Nolan, 19, and Clifford Lowe, 20, both of near Clinton were charged specifically with conspiracy to dynamite and illegal possession of dynamite. They were jailed in lieu of $4,000 bond each.

Sheriff Glad Woodward said they told him they abandoned the plan to set off the dynamite in the school's coal bin for fear "somebody would get killed."

Woodward said the pair told him they were to have received $250 each for bombing the school, scene of much racial strife when it desegregated under federal court order last year. The sheriff said the youths added they were employed by a third man who was to receive the money from a "Nashville source."

Officers sought this third man. The sheriff said he was checking to see if there were any connection between the alleged plot and the actual dynamiting of a Nashville grammar school last fall when the city began integration.

Woodward said he uncovered the plot in an investigation related to the discovery of two sacks of dynamite on the banks of the Clinch River here. About 300 sticks were recovered, he said.

Conviction of conspiracy carries a maximum sentence of 3-10 years in prison. Violation of the state's law on possession of dynamite carries a maximum penalty of 2-10 years in prison.

Seven Negro pupils enrolled at Clinton High School this fall, but two have since been transferred at county expense. They are attending a Negro high school in nearby Knoxville.

World agricultural production in 1956-57 is estimated at about 17 per cent higher than the 1948-52 average.

MIT's Head Gets Post As Missile Czar

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. James R. Killian is moving from cloistered university life into one of the sharpest controversies and some of the knottiest problems Washington has seen in many a year.

Sitting on the right hand of President Eisenhower as "special assistant to the President for science and technology," the 53-year-old head of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will find he also is concerned, directly or indirectly, with such matters as these:

1. Clamoring criticism from people in and out of Congress who demand to know why we are supposedly behind Russia in the missile weapon field; (b) why Russia is ahead in the satellite launching business; (c) what is going to be done about it.
2. Money—should more be spent for military scientific projects?
3. The rivalry of the individual armed forces in weaponry, which Eisenhower calls "alleged inter-service competition."

Killian is no stranger to Washington activities, having served on an Army science advisory panel in 1951 and on a number of national foundation and scholarship boards.

He comes to Washington calmly. But he said in a statement at Cambridge, Mass., last night that "I shall move as rapidly as possible to marshal the best scientific and engineering judgment and creative talent in the United States and to make it available to the President for the formulation of national policy which involves science and technology."

Third Moon

ier statement was made on the basis of unconfirmed reports from various sources.

Hynek and Dr. Fred I. Whipple, the observatory's director, said last night they don't think Sputnik II is breaking up. Hynek said he watched the dog-carrying satellite yesterday morning.

Hynek said Sputnik II went right across a star in the Big Dipper—"It almost looked like a celestial collision, but I saw no separation."

"Generally when something like that occurs—a splitting of a satellite—a great many people would see it," Hynek added. "None of the observations today reported any more than one object."

So far, the Russians have supplied American scientists with very little data on their two satellites. But last night Hynek and Whipple disclosed in Cambridge that the Russians have sent directly to the Smithsonian Observatory two messages on orbit predictions for Sputnik II.

Later, on an NBC broadcast, Hynek said this was the first time the Russians had complied with a request for satellite information. No data, he said, has been received on Sputnik I.

In London, British Defense Minister Duncan Sandys told the House of Commons yesterday that information being radioed back to Russia automatically from the Soviet space vehicles "is of the highest military value in the development of intercontinental ballistic missiles."

Father Of Three To Die For Killing School Girl

WATERBURY, Conn.—A 39-year-old father of three children was convicted by a Superior Court jury yesterday of first-degree murder in the slaying of a Bristol grammar school girl.

Judge John R. Thum immediately sentenced George J. Davies of Thomaston to die in the electric chair Feb. 17 at the state prison in Wethersfield. Davies, under law, has two weeks to appeal the sentence.

Davies, a short, thin, sharp-featured man, heard the death sentence without visible emotion.

Davies was convicted of slaying Brenda Jane Daucette, 8, last May 13. The girl, formerly of Brewer, Maine, was abducted on her way to school and stabbed and strangled.

The jury reached a verdict after deliberating for nearly five hours.

Davies had also been indicted on a first degree murder charge in the slaying of Gaetano Boivin, 16, of Waterbury, May 9.

In 1952, he was convicted of molesting two young Thomaston girls and sentenced to three years in jail.

By reasons, I know you will not expect me to enumerate."

Among Congress members, Republicans generally praised the President's talk. Reaction by Democrats included a comment by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) that all the steps proposed by the President "are important steps and will receive the full support from all members of the Democratic party," though he said "they should have been done before two Sputniks were fired."

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) also pledged to support the administration in "any real, effective" defense speed-up.

But Rep. Hays (D-Ohio) complained: "It's the same old story—appoint a committee to study the problem and hope the problem will go away... It does sound, though, like Sputnik has shocked the President and maybe he will stay awake."

On the other hand, Sen. Javits (R-NY) said the President in his talk last night was "the Eisenhower of the crusade in Europe."

Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) said Eisenhower outlined "a well rounded program for the consideration of Congress and the American people and was very frank about the situation."

Missile Project Cost Seen Hiked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) today put a cost of an accelerated satellite-missiles program at an extra one or two billion dollars a year.

He made the estimate at the White House after a conference with President Eisenhower.

Bridges told newsmen he believes Congress will appropriate whatever is necessary.

The senator is senior Republican on the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Grain Prices Mixed

CHICAGO (AP)—Prices of grains and soybeans were mixed at the opening at the Board of Trade today.

'Test Vehicle' Fired

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force announced today that a "test vehicle" was fired this morning from the Cape Canaveral, Fla., missiles test center.

Runaway Test Rocket Crashes Near Highway

White Sands Proving Ground, N.M. (AP)—An Air Force missile exploded a rocket when it leaves function. An Air Force spokesman said the body of the Aerobee was intact when it was found.

The Aerobee test rocket crashed outside proving ground boundaries about four miles north of the village of Three Rivers and "a short distance" east of the highway.

The rocket was fired at 9:05 a.m. and went out of control about 40 seconds later.

Wall Street Hears...

NEW YORK—(INS)Wall Street Hears:

Commodity price strength in recent session is based on the expectations that (1) the administration will ask Congress and get, additional funds for the farm surplus disposal program, and (2) the Democratic victories indicate higher support prices.

Boston and Maine loadings are running about 13 per cent below a year ago, but the road was in the black in October, and may earn in excess of 1956's $741,223 for the 12 months...

Carborundum sales for the year will be about 7 per cent above last year but earnings will be lower—somewhere around $3.30 vs. $3.68. A strike cost about 30 cents a share. In addition, the company is spending about 3 per cent of sales for research and development...

Agriculture Briefs...

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The Agriculture Department today authorized purchase agreements for 1957-crop peanuts in the response to demand from peanut-growing areas.

Purchase agreements were abandoned in 1952 because of lack of interest. Peanuts were supported since then only by loans.

Purchase agreements will be available through next January 31. Peanuts cannot be delivered to the Commodity Credit Corporation under these agreements unless they belonged to the producer at the time of harvest and remained in his hands until delivery.

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The Agriculture Department reported today the investment of the Commodity Credit Corporation stood at $6,834,250,000 as of Sept. 30—down about one billion dollars from a year earlier.

About five billion, 300 million dollars of the total consisted of inventories, including two billion dollars worth of wheat, one and one-half billion worth of corn, and about 800 thousand dollars worth of upland cotton.

CCC losses in the three months that ended Sept. 30 were $334,007,376—up more than four per cent from the same period of 1956.

In Spain's southern provinces entire communities live below ground in natural caves, the National Geographic Magazine says. Their homes vary just as houses do; some have only a single room, others as many as 20 chambers with tiled floors and whitewashed walls.

D. C. Board Clears Chief Of "Brutality"

WASHINGTON (AP)—District of Columbia Commissioners yesterday unanimously cleared Police Chief Robert V. Murray of charges of condoning brutality and racial discrimination.

They gave him and the Police Department a vote of confidence. The three commissioners declared that the District chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) "failed to sustain by the evidence presented" the charges it brought against Murray.

The statement followed nine days of hearings into seven charges and 31 specifications.

Underwood Gives Reason For Keeping Breiding

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Gov. Cecil Underwood said yesterday that he retained George H. Breiding on West Virginia Conservation Commission while firing four other members this week because Stanley.

He also told a press conference that former Gov. William C. Marland apparently has an apathetic attitude toward the bond revenue program designed to improve West Virginia's major parks. Underwood criticized the program.

Dim Picture Of Conditions In Pen Given

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—A prisoner seeking his freedom painted a sorry picture yesterday of conditions within the Maryland House of Correction at Jessup.

Circuit Judge John B. Gontrom denied the prisoner his freedom. But he told the State's attorney to refer the prisoner's statements about unsanitary conditions and poor medical standards to the grand jury.

The 54-year-old prisoner, Joseph Pacyna of Washington, is serving a two-year term for false pretense. His criminal record dates to 1934.

Pacyna told Judge Gontrom he had made frequent efforts to have conditions at the prison investigated, "but nothing has been done." He added, "If I go back to the House of Correction and am not released, I feel that I will be crucified."

The prisoner said no blood tests of prisoners were made during two years of an earlier stay at the House of Correction. When they were taken, he said, 100 prisoners were found to have syphilis but many continued working in the dining room.

He contended that prison officials distract attention of investigating grand jurors, prisoners having 103 degree temperatures must get up to see the doctor rather than the doctor seeing them, some with peptic ulcers have lost 50 pounds because no diet is provided, and the usual medication for all ills is a saline nose solution.

"I'm fighting for my life," Pacyna said, "and I don't propose to get in the condition of the other witness who was just on the stand."

The witness preceding him told the court he would have died if he had not been transferred to the Maryland Penitentiary hospital. Judge Gontrom said, "He is obviously in a weakened and sick condition."

Veterans Bonus Move Becomes "Hot Potato"

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—After months of inaction, the veterans bonus proposal has been taken from the surplus, but would accede to the shelf for a giddy game of hot potato between the Legislative Council and Gov. McKeldin.

The game was touched off by a letter to the council from the Maryland Veterans Council. The letter complained that the governor had "not seen fit" to set up a committee to study the bonus proposals as requested in a resolution passed by the 1957 Legislature.

The Democrat-controlled council, at a meeting Wednesday, voted to send a committee of its most influential members to discuss the issue with the Republican governor.

Yesterday, before the committee could make the trip, McKeldin wrote Senate President Goldstein (D-Calvert) and House Speaker Luber (D-Balto) that he was appointing them to the joint committee along with Sen. Phocas (R-Somerset), Sen. Phipps (D-Anne Arundel) and Del. Hughes (R-Allegany).

This was the very committee named by the council to visit the governor.

McKeldin said he has previously told veterans' groups that the logical committees for consideration of bonus proposals are the Senate Finance Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee.

The governor said he had noted that the council believes he should name a joint committee.

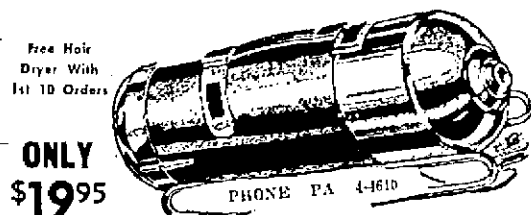

"I am sure that this indicates no lack of confidence on the part of the council in the ability of the legislative committees to handle this problem, or in the ability of the council officers to select a special joint committee since such is deemed necessary."

"I assume, therefore, that what the Legislature sought and what the council now seeks is the vesting of the special committee in the prestige of the Executive Department as well as the Legislature."

Education Week Program Planned At Valley High

LONACONING — Open house for American Education Week will be held Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Valley High School.

Principal Jack A. Petry will give opening remarks at the auditorium assembly of parents, friends and visitors. "I've Been Working On The Railroad," and "I'll See You Again" will be sung by the seventh and eighth grade chorus.

Police Report Winter Rule Now Effective

FROSTBURG — Chief of Police Lloyd Truly has called to the attention of Frostburg motorists that Ordinance 473 which goes into effect each November 1 until April 1 regulates parking on certain streets of the city.

Truly pointed out that the ordinance states that at certain times of the year it becomes necessary for the Street Department to use trucks and machinery for the purpose of clearing the streets of snow and ice. He said the presence of trucks and other motor vehicles parked and left unattended on the streets makes it impossible and expensive for the street department to fully perform the work necessary to keep the streets in good condition.

After November 1 of each year it becomes illegal to park overnight on Main Street from Grant Street to the westerly limits of the city; Water Street from First Alley to College Avenue and on Broadway from Main Street to College Avenue. Parking is prohibited on these streets from 2 a. m. to 6 a. m. in order to give workmen an opportunity to either plow or remove snow from these streets.

The ordinance gives the Police Department power to have illegally parked machines towed away with the owner subject to a fine of not less than $10 or more than $50.

The chief has asked that residents observe the ordinance, and when snow falls to be sure their cars are not parked on these streets during the restrictive hours. He added that the police are not interested in making arrests and fining the motorists, but are concerned in keeping the streets open and safe for both vehicular and foot traffic.

New Traffic Changes Set At Frostburg

FROSTBURG — Police Chief Lloyd Truly today stated that Water Street will become one-way from Main Street to its intersection with Linden Street, and that Broadway will become one-way its entire length from Main Street to Park Avenue, effective tomorrow.

Sections of both Water and Broadway, which were two-way heretofore, are having signs erected, pointing the direction of traffic.

The new section of Water Street becoming one-way, moving south, is between College Avenue and Linden Street. The section of Broadway, now becoming one-way moving north, is between College Avenue and Park Avenue. Traffic moving north on South Water Street will use Park Lane as the connecting road with Broadway. Park Lane will remain two-way.

The change in the direction of traffic on these two streets is the first official act of Police Commissioner William Sluss. The ordinance authorizing the move was passed several months ago.

Replies indicate that over 300 mothers and fathers of the regularly enrolled students will be at the college, many of them coming from great distances.

Entertainment will include open house and luncheon, followed by attendance at the Potomac State Fairmont College football game. Guests will register in the administration building between 10 and 11 a. m. Circle K Club members will be on hand to welcome them and see that they receive name badges, programs and a map of the campus. The ROTC department is providing the name badges which will also have the hometown of the parent.

Students themselves will accompany their parents on a tour of the campus throughout the open house period from 11 a. m. to 12:15 p. m., during which time they will be inspecting the various buildings and facilities and meeting college personnel, but did not become effective until several curbs were changed on South Water Street to permit trucks to enter from the alley between College Avenue and Linden Street, and make the necessary right turn.

Fire Damages Home Of Former Residents

WESTERNPORT — The upper portion of the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. William Stultz, Churchland, Va., formerly of here, was destroyed by fire October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Stultz and their daughter, Debra Ann, who were in the house at the time, saved most of their possessions with the assistance of neighbors.

Business Group Told To Sell U. S. System

U. S. Satellite Retarded By Rocket Work

The Sputniks represent a "high state of art" but the United States had fuels and materials necessary for launching a satellite vehicle a few years ago — and could have done so at the expense of the more important job of rocket weapons development.

The report was given to the Junior Association of Commerce by Christian M. Frey, a member of the club who is superintendent of the Design Research Group of the Allegheny Ballistics Laboratory here.

Frey described the United States' satellite efforts and the part the Ballistics Laboratory has played in the development of Project Vanguard.

He pointed out that a vehicle weighing only 22,000 pounds will be used to launch a 22 pound satellite, whereas substantially larger vehicles are very practical at this time.

A 30,000 pound unit, he added, would be required to propel a unit beyond the earth's gravitational field into outer space.

A high level of research effort and low income taxes, he added, are not compatible.

Business transacted at the dinner meeting Wednesday night included the election of Casper R. Taylor Jr. to the board of directors.

Committee reports on the Christmas Lighting project, the Voice of America contest and the beautification of the entrance to Cumberland at the Narrows were presented.

Misinformation—or lack of information—is responsible for much of the anti-business attitude held by people, a representative of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States said here last night.

This view was expressed by Walter B. Petravage, Washington, manager of the Business Relations Department of the United States Chamber, in a talk before 130 business and industrial leaders of the Cumberland area.

Petravage was the principal speaker at the Cumberland Business Leaders Conference held at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club under the joint auspices of the United States Chamber and the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce.

Edgar H. Cherry, Atlanta, manager of the Southeastern Division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and Robert P. Butson, Roanoke, district manager, assisted in the conference program.

Other speakers were Charles S. Catherman Jr., president of the Cumberland Chamber, and Anthony J. Sacli, local manager.

Probing into the attitudes and opinions of large segments of the population, the U. S. Chamber official warned local business leaders there is an urgent need for developing an understanding of the operation of business and the American economic system.

A highlight of the conference was an analysis of an opinion poll taken earlier this week among high school seniors in Cumberland.

The survey, designed to determine attitudes toward the American business system, was conducted here under the auspices of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce, with the approval of public and parochial school authorities.

Results of the poll will be used in planning future activities, the Chamber said.

The high school seniors were asked to express their opinions on such subjects as profits, competition and prices, wages and hours of work, productivity, standard of living, job opportunities and government ownership or regulation of major industries.

On the basis of this poll and others, the local Chamber hopes to work out a program to explain the American free enterprise system and to build greater confidence in the American way of life.

The business leaders at last night's conference were seated in groups of eight, each in charge of a discussion leader.

Each group, through its leader, reported its recommendations on what steps the local Chamber should take to "sell" the American business system and to demonstrate its benefits.

Among the devices recommended for study were letters, films, employee meetings, supervisors' leadership courses, employee publications, annual reports and bulletin boards.

Projects recommended for sponsorship by the local Chamber included Explaining Your Business, conferences, employer-employee relations clinics, Business-Industry-Education days, Career days, economic discussion groups and radio programs.

Each person present was asked to indicate the projects to which he preferred to be assigned.

Chamber officials said last night that the local Chamber will include in its sell free enterprise program of work as many of the projects as can be adequately handled.

Committees will be appointed to work out details.

Community Council To Meet Tonight

The Cumberland Community Council will hold its monthly meeting today at 8 p.m. at the Woman's Civic Club, according to Robert A. Mathews, president.

Topics for discussion will include the activities calendar, membership extension and the consideration of suggested community projects.

Rocket Fired By University

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — A "homemade" high altitude research vehicle costing about $200 has been built by University of Maryland scientists and fired to an altitude of about 95 miles.

Dr. S. Fred Singer, Maryland physicist, said yesterday three of the Oriole rockets were fired from a ship off the Virginia coast earlier this week and soared to 500,000 feet.

He said the firings "placed the exploration of space with high altitude rockets on the same basis as costwise and effort-wise as low altitude measurements with weather balloons."

VFL, Lehigh Clash In Game Of Unbeaten

By The Associated Press
VFL's "comeback kids" risk their unbeaten record against another of the nation's dwindling list of undefeated teams, Lehigh, tomorrow in the spotlight game of eight scheduled for Southern Conference football teams.

Coach John McKenna's Keydets, with six victories and a tie to their credit, will be underdogs in the battle at Bethlehem, Pa., but the fact fails to worry McKenna. He has been in the same position too often.

Four times previously this fall, VFL has been considered inferior to its opposition but has come no closer to defeat than a 21-21 tie with Holy Cross.

High-Scoring Team
This clash of the unbeaten — Lehigh has won 10 games in a row over a two-season span — could develop into a stirring duel of offenses. VFL's backfield, starring halfback Bobby Jordan, quarterback Duke Johnston and fullback Sam Woolwine, is considered the finest in the Southern Conference and has made the Keydets the league's highest-scoring team with 142 points in seven games.

Tomorrow afternoon's home advantage for conference teams shows only one game that will count in the conference standings. This one sends George Washington, 1-4 in the conference and 2-5 over-all, to Richmond, 6-3 and 2-3 for the Spiders' homecoming game.

West Virginia's conference champions, 4-2-1 for the season thus far, travel to Pitt for the game the Mountaineers annually regard as a "must."

Indians Meet State
William & Mary (2-5) steps out of the conference to meet 10th-ranked N. C. State of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Virginia Tech (3-4), essaying a late comeback after a dismal October, has a date at Wake Forest, also of the ACC.

Davidson (3-2) is host to Wolf College; The Citadel (4-2-1) entertains Presbyterian, and Washington & Lee (0-5) goes to Sewanee in other games tomorrow.

At Blacksburg, Va., Virginia Tech held an hour-long non-contact workout. A 35-man squad will leave by bus tonight for Winston-Salem, N. C.

Coach Milt Drewer announced that Jack Yohe and Mike Chunta will start at halfback in tomorrow's game against N. C. State while Jay Sanner will be at fullback. Bob Hargrave, who moved up last week to take over for the injured Tom Secules, will continue at quarterback.

WVC Gets Ready
Tackles Elliott Schaubach and Dick Hoyer are on the doubtful list for the game. Schaubach, with an injured ankle and Hoyer, bothered with a leg injury which kept him from last week's game. Virginia Military Institute's unbeaten Keydets ran through plays and reviewed defenses. Coach John McKenna told the squad that Lehigh "may be tougher than anybody we've faced yet."

Richmond stressed punting and punt returns and worked on pass defense and plays.

At Morgantown, W. Va., the West Virginia Mountaineers went through a light drill in preparation for their annual clash Saturday with the powerful Pittsburgh Panthers. Coach Art Lewis emphasized review of offensive and defensive assignments.

Uniontown Boys Quit At Indiana

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (INS)—Indiana's football fortunes continued to sink today with the announcement that four players have dropped out of school but were bolstered somewhat by the appointment of Bob Dro, one of the Hoosiers' all-time athletic greats, as head recruiter.

Dro, a former basketball and baseball star, will carry the title of assistant athletic director and will assume his new duties a week from today.

Meanwhile, three players from Uniontown, Pa., fullback John Meegan, a sophomore; center Harry Hartman; and tackle Bruce Coligan have returned home. Meegan quit school Wednesday because he was "disturbed" over Indiana's football outlook.

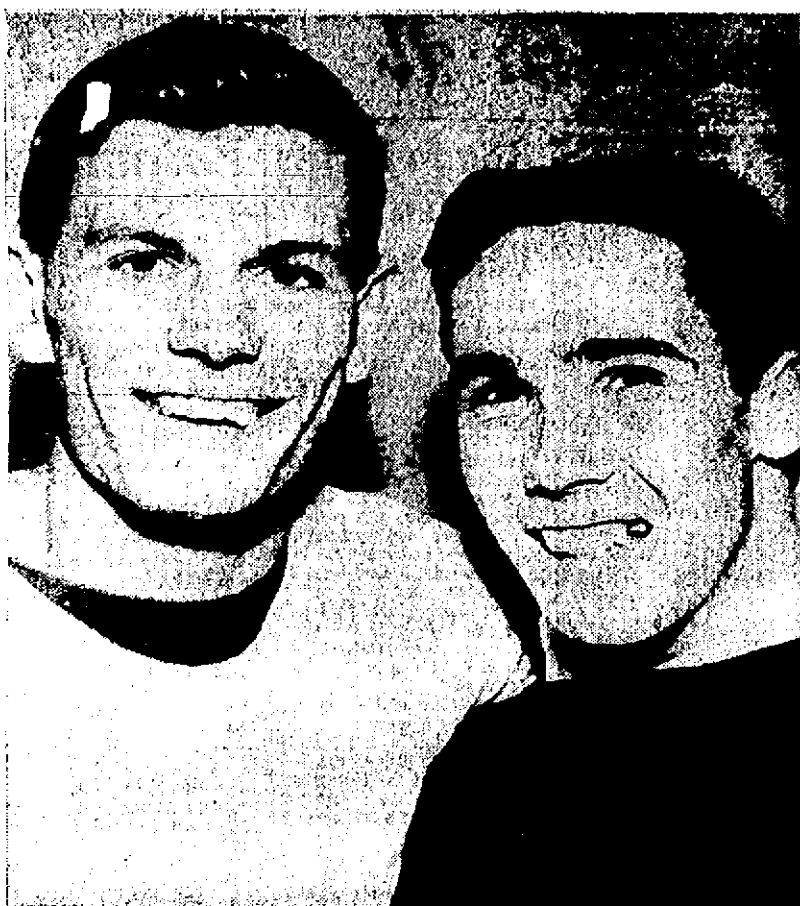

The fourth player to leave Indiana was Willie Jones, junior fullback from Chicago, who has been sidelined by injuries. Meegan said he hoped that West Virginia University "will be interested in me." Coligan and Hartman were unavailable for comment but Meegan indicated that both would also try to enter other schools.

Washington To Entertain Colts Sunday

BALTIMORE (Special)—What is regarded as one of the most spirited rivalries in professional football comes up for renewal on Sunday (2 p.m.) when the Baltimore Colts shoot it out with their neighborhood rivals, the Washington Redskins, at Griffith Stadium before an expected turnout of 30,000.

A feature of the game is that the Advocate Club Cup—the only trophy in existence in the National Football League—comes up for grabs for the fourth year in a row. Strange things have happened in this modern football-style version of the Hatfield and McCoy.

Last December, the Colts won the Advocate Club Cup for the first time when Jim Mutscheller grabbed the rebound of a 54-yard pass by John Unitas. The ball had been deflected by Redskins defender Norb Hecker, and lunged across the goal-line with only 15 seconds remaining to post a 19-17 win.

The Colts, after vaulting to the front with three straight victories, have dropped three in a row and stand 3 and 3 as the second half of the season unfolds. Washington has won two and lost four.

West Virginia Mountaineers went through a light drill in preparation for their annual clash Saturday with the powerful Pittsburgh Panthers. Coach Art Lewis emphasized review of offensive and defensive assignments.

In a pre-season test, the Redskins handled the Colts, 24-14. The other league series weighs in favor of Washington, too, as guard, Chuck Howley, will be the Redskins' have won four of six meetings. This is only the third time they have met in Washington and a near-capacity audience seems assured.

Gallant Man, Round Table Clash In Trenton Tomorrow

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Ironically, Gallant Man and Round Table, top contenders for three-year-old of the year honors, will clash in the $75,000 added Trenton Handicap at Garden State Park Saturday for about half the money offered by several other tracks.

The two classy three-year-olds p. m. Saturday. Originally, the and Whentley Stable's Bold Ruler of the year honor also was let, plus perhaps one or two other at stake, but this phase of the race, are slated to run in the mile race went by the boards when a quarter Trenton. The win Mrs. Jan Burke was forced to net figures to drag down some scratch her 5-year-old handicap where in the neighborhood of $30,000. Ralph Lowe, owner of Gallant Man, and Travis Kerr, owner of Round Table, previously had did the scratching and in so doing been offered $100,000 winner take fired a challenge to the winner, all for a match race.

However, while the money is ate to stud in Kentucky next always welcome, both Lowe and year. But Burke commented, "If Kerr are wealthy enough to want Dedicate comes along alright, we the three-year-old title, regardless might send him in the Public of the purse. And that's what Special — if we could get a crack they'll be running for about 4:10 at the winner of the Trenton."

Realignment Confab Kept Confidential

NEW YORK (AP)—Commissioner Ford Frick and other baseball officials had a go at figuring out a realignment for the indispensible Pacific Coast League yesterday. But if they hit on a plan, they hung it in a closet to see if it rattles before making it public.

All that was announced after the meeting was a statement saying (1) the meeting had been held, (2) who attended, and (3) they will meet here again Tuesday.

The session was so hush-hush Frick's office even refused to name the hotel on the northwest corner of Lexington and 42nd St. where the meeting was held.

While Frick did go so far as to say "a number of possibilities were considered which representatives at the meeting will take back to their leagues and clubs for their views," the only note that perked up the day was the fact Texas League and American Assn. representatives sat in on the conference.

That bears out predictions that any realignment of the PCL could set off a chain reaction throughout most of the minor league structure.

Denver, of the American Assn. and Dallas, of the Texas League, have been prominent in guesses as to where the PCL will land, now that the National League has moved into Los Angeles and San Francisco with the Dodgers and Giants.

If those two cities are to serve as substitutes for the PCL, only two thirds of the league's problem is solved, however. The Hollywood club also will have to scramble out of the Los Angeles area. Salt Lake City, a onetime PCL franchise, or Phoenix have been nominated as the third replacement.

It was learned, however, that the Texas League was not directly involved in yesterday's discussion. And the American Assn. representative was excused from the meeting before it got down to hard facts.

Buff Donelli Sold On Ivy Football

NEW YORK (AP)—Buff Donelli has coached them all from independents to the pros to the Ivy League. After a half season as head football coach at Columbia, he is sold on the Ivy brand.

"Technically, the caliber of play is as good as anywhere," he said. "A few clubs, notably Dartmouth, Princeton and Brown, are very good football teams. If there is any difference between those teams and the top teams in the east it is a very small difference."

"As for ingenuity and ideas on football, the Ivy is as far advanced as any despite its lack of spring practice."

"Anybody who says the Ivy boys don't play for keeps or has a different approach is wrong. There is no relationship between I. Q. and the desire to hit. It's all a matter of a boy liking to play."

Donelli, now a graying 50, came to Columbia this year from Boston University. He has coached at Duquesne, the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Cleveland Rams before coming to Columbia during the war in the V-12 Navy program.

Maryland, Clemson In Top Conference Test Tomorrow

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—Maryland's football team swings South again tomorrow to meet the rampaging Clemson Tigers in the top Atlantic Coast Conference game of the day. A sellout crowd of near 30,000 is expected to be on hand for the Tigers' homecoming game.

This marks the third of four away games that the Terps have been advertised as a homecoming attraction. Next week in Miami, the Red and White runs into another homecoming weekend second halfback, which went for the winning score against the Hurricanes.

Frank Howard's Tigers have progressed each week and now are considered one of the top teams in the South. Evidence of their strength and new found power was their upset victory of the strong Rice Owls last Saturday, 20 to 7. They take a three-game winning streak into the Maryland game.

The young Tiger team opened the season with a 66-6 win over Presbyterian, then lost to North Carolina, 26-0, and to North Carolina State, 13-7. Then followed the three wins, 20-6 over Virginia, 13-0 over South Carolina and the conquest of Rice, Clemson was a 12-point underdog to Rice.

Use Two-Unit System
Clemson employs the two-unit system with not too much emphasis put on one team being the first unit. In their winning streak, it has been the so-called second unit, led by their great sophomore quarterback, Harvey White. He threw two scoring passes against Rice. Leading the first unit is quarterback Bill Barbary.

The Tigers have four excellent fullbacks in Rudy Hayes, Bob Spooner, Mike Dukes, and Doug Cline. Charlie Horne, Bob Chatlin and George Usry are a fine trio of halfbacks. Sonny Quesenberry, another standout halfback, was injured in the Rice game and is expected to miss tomorrow's game.

Up front, Howard has big and strong linemen led by ends Ray Masneri, Harvey White and Bill Few; tackles Jim Padgett and Harold Olson; guards Jim Payne and John Grijan; and center, Donnie Bunton. Masneri, Padgett, Grijan, and Bunton are the standouts.

The Terps, with a 3-4 overall mark and 3-2 in the ACC, go into the game in top physical condition as they try to even their season's record.

Moore Favored In Bout Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pete Moore, a rugged halfpint from Springfield, Ohio, is a 9-5 favorite to beat Jose Colera of Los Angeles in their 10-round featherweight bout at Capitol Arena tonight.

Moore, who has climbed quickly in the 128-pound ratings, earned the favorite role with an all-around performance this year. He has captured four decisions, while Colera has lost two of his 16 fights going into tonight's scrap.

Neither battler has ever been knocked out and each has finished off an even dozen opponents. Moore has won 26, lost 4 and had 1 draw. Colera, who has been punching for pay a year longer, lists 33 victories against 12 defeats and 5 draws.

Celtics May Find Trouble In Warriors

By The Associated Press

The talk around the National Basketball Assn. so far has been all Boston Celtics, undefeated in their first seven games, and seemingly a clinch to repeat as NBA champs. But wait, the Philadelphia Warriors are trying to get a word in edgewise.

The Warriors have three games in the next three days to Boston's one, and victories in all three would give them something to talk about. Particularly, since the Warriors opened the heavy work schedule with a 113-101 victory over the New York Knickerbockers in the NBA's only game last night.

Cincinnati could help by beating Boston tonight.

The Warriors have an eye on the calendar too, counting the days until former rookie sensation Tom Gola is discharged from the Army.

Gola led the Warriors to the 1956 NBA championship and they feel he will be the necessary factor in any championship plans for this year.

The Warriors' Neil Johnston led all scorers with 34 points, his best night of the season. Kenny Sears led New York with 18.

Tonight, the Warriors play the winless Minneapolis Lakers, and the Knicks play the Syracuse Nationals. The Warriors travel to St. Louis Saturday and play Cincinnati Sunday.

McKay, McGeedy Roll Wild Again In Duckpin Play

There is one good reason why Cec's Cafe is setting the pace in the Cities Service Bowling League. It is Eddie McKay, the slick-shooting southpaw who makes a habit out of breaking records.

McKay fired a sizzling 635 set this week to pace Cecil Grimes' pace-setters to a 2-1 victory over Super Concrete. His top game was 237.

McIntyre's Grocers, however, pulled to within two games of the pacing spot by shutting out C&A Gas Company behind the gallant efforts of Tom McGeedy. Tom, who finished as the top duckpin bowler in the county last year, followed by McKay, finished just one pin behind Eddie, posting a 248 single and 634 set.

Sports Shoppe defeated Post Office, 2-1, in the league's other match.

Eight bowlers posted sets over 500 and Carl Felten of Post Office was just five pins away with a 491-495 showing. Other leaders are Jim Eckard, 201-513; Cecil Grimes, 195-563; and Bill Clark, 207-536. Super Concrete: George Schupfer, 210-533; Sports Shoppe: Tom Dentinger, 197-519; Gasco, and John Bender, 246-573; McIntyre's. Standings:

Put Up Or Shut Up Faces College Teams Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

This college football season, one of the best ever, now comes up with a weekend that plunks the underdogs on the spot along with the favorites. It's put up or shut up for most everybody.

The big games tomorrow are Texas A&M-SMU, Oklahoma-Missouri, Auburn-Mississippi State, Iowa-Minnesota, Ohio State-Purdue, Navy-Duke, Tennessee-Georgia Tech, Michigan State-Notre Dame and Oregon-Washington. Just about all of them have a double angle.

Texas A&M, No. 1 again in The Associated Press poll, probably has had its scare for the year (last week's 7-6 decision at Arkansas) and is a two-TD favorite. Southern Methodist, putting in a late bid for the Southwest Conference title and a bowl berth must knock off the Aggies to make the bid bud.

Oklahoma's sub-par Sooners, finding summer soldiers among the supporters who have beaten the drums through 46 consecutive victories, must win big against Missouri to retain their national prestige. Mizzou, grown ambitious after winning four in a row, must knock off the Sooners to swipe the Orange Bowl spot.

Auburn, giving Oklahoma a battle for second place in the poll, is at least a touchdown pick in its bid for a perfect season and the Southeastern Conference title. But Mississippi State must look good in this one for any chance at a bowl shot.

Iowa, knocked out of the Big Ten lead by last week's tie with Michigan, is a touchdown favorite as the Hawkeyes eye a repeat crown although barred from a Rose Bowl repeat. Minnesota, twice beaten but still hopeful of the Rose Bowl bid since the Gophers play one more game than Ohio State and Michigan State, must win this one to stay alive.

Tennessee, a touchdown favorite, has lost only to Auburn but can't lose another and retain a crack at one of those bowl berths. Georgia Tech, poking its nose in with last week's upset of Duke, must win the rest of the way for a seventh consecutive bowl appearance.

Michigan State, favored by two TDs, is working on a comeback up the top 10 list after that upset by Purdue three weeks ago. Notre Dame, knocked off by Navy last week and facing Oklahoma next week, must win this one in its comeback try from last season's poor showing.

Ohio State can't afford to breathe easy against Purdue if the Buckeyes are to retain the Big Ten lead and an edge in the race to the Rose Bowl. Navy, with an eye on another bowl bid, proved it had the stuff against Notre Dame, now must prove it knows what to do with it against Duke's Blue Devils, who have the Atlantic Coast Conference bid to the Orange Bowl in the bag.

Oregon, having whipped the other eligibles, could clinch the Pacific Coast Conference's approval for the Rose Bowl by defeating Washington.

Maryland

heavily, John Collar and Bob Pege, have been out a major part of the season.

With Collar in the lineup yesterday, the passing phase of the practice apparently pleased the coaches. Doing the tossing were quarterbacks Tom Katch, Ernie Driscoll and Frank Cackovic.

Dick Christy, the team's ace running back, has been a favorite target for passers. Both touchdowns scored against Duke came on acrobatics to Christy. He is second in the Atlantic Coast Conference in individual scoring with eight touchdowns for 48 points, leaving him three touchdowns shy of the school's all-time scoring mark of 66 points set by Alex Webster in 1951.

The Wolfpack, now assured of its best season since 1950, also needs 481 yards to break the school rushing record of 1,780 yards for 10 games.

South Carolina, which plays North Carolina Saturday in a game that will be televised regionally, held only a light workout yesterday. Flu, which struck the squad, has left the Gamecocks starting team a question.

Light work was held at North Carolina where the team was reported in good physical condition with the exception of halfback Don Coker, who still is limping.

Both Clemson and Maryland, which play at Clemson tapered off yesterday. The Tigers did their final heavy work, working until after dark.

Duke, which had scheduled a heavy drill, ended up holding a light practice after more than 3,000 students swarmed over the field for a pep rally.

Coach Bill Murray called the rally "one of the finest things that has happened since he has been at Duke. The team left by train for Baltimore today where the Blue Devils meet Navy tomorrow.

Only dummy work was held at Wake Forest which plays host to VPI tomorrow. The team held a general review in light equipment. Coach Paul Amen said all except co-capt. George Johnson are in good shape.

Maryland Duck Hunters Unhappy

BALTIMORE — Duck season is underway in Maryland but the duck hunters—including Gov. McKeldin—aren't happy.

It seems the weather is just too good for duck hunting.

The governor told his gun up to a blind on the Chester River on the Eastern Shore yesterday, opening day of the season.

He stayed there for three hours and not only failed to bag the limit, he didn't even get a shot. But he said he'll try again Monday.

Most hunters agreed it must get a lot colder and rougher before the migrating ducks will venture closer to shore. The daily limit is four.

At Town's Point an estimated 50,000 fowl flew overhead but all of them were out of range.

All-American Backing Given Chuck Howley

By TED SMITS

NEW YORK — Alex Karras of Iowa, first team All-American in 1955, and Lou Michaels of Kentucky, on last year's second team, lead the strong crop of current line candidates in the opinion of AP's All-American boards.

Both are tackles. Karras plays for the nation's fifth ranked team, but Michaels has shone despite the fact Kentucky has won only one of seven games.

Other linemen who received top recommendations from the 12 regional boards are James Gibbons of Iowa and Sam Williams of Michigan State, both ends from the Big Ten; Jimmy Phillips of Auburn, also an end; Charles Krueger, Texas A & M tackle who was on the 1956 third All-American board; Bill Krisher, Oklahoma guard; Jim Brackens, Oregon State guard; and Joe Palermo, Dartmouth guard.

The Associated Press All-American, based on the recommendations of the regional boards made up of sports writers and sportscasters, will be announced Dec. 5 and will take into account all regular season games. Present appraisals may be revised in the four big remaining college football weekends.

Others given high ranking in the current listings include Dan Currie, Michigan State center; Aurelius H. Thomas of Ohio State and Allen Eusey of Notre Dame, both guards; Don Stephenson of Georgia Tech, center; Clyde Lettetter, Baylor guard; John Tracey, Texas A & M, end; Charles Rash, Missouri, guard; Bob Harrison, Oklahoma, center; K. C. Wallen, UCLA, end; George Boss, Utah, end; Chuck Howley, West Virginia, guard; Roy Ford, Duke, guard; and Stan Reaming, Montana, guard.

By a strange quirk, Don Ellingsen of Washington State is receiving consideration both as a line man and as a back. He plays end on offense and safety on defense. In pass receptions he ranks fourth nationally with 410 yards on 31 passes caught. He has scored two touchdowns.

Gibbons is another of the strong line candidates with national statistical ranking. He is 12th in passes caught with 319 yards and 10 touchdowns on 18 catches.

Others who caught the eye of the regional boards include Vester Newcomb, Miami (Fla.) center; Dick Forrest, Texas Western end; Glen Hakes of New Mexico and Wimp Hewgley of Wyoming, both tackles; Tony Stremic, a tackle, and Pete Jokanovich, an end, both of Navy; Dick Scherer, Pitt end; Paul McGuire, Citadel end and Tom Toppling, Duke tackle.

Hoop Meeting Attended By 40

Approximately 40 area basketball coaches and officials met last night at the Wilson Hardware Company to discuss plans for the coming campaign.

Schools represented by coaches were Fort Hill, Allegany, Garrett, Southern, Garrett Northern, LaSalle, Beall, Valley, Bruce, Mt. Savage, Oldtown, West Virginia School for the Deaf, Romney, Moorefield, Keyser and Ridgeley. Frostburg State Teachers College was also represented.

Rules changes for the 1957-58 season were among the items discussed.

Navy Out To Cement High National Rating

By The Associated Press

Navy will be out to cement its high national ranking and Maryland to emphasize its comeback in Saturday's football games.

The seventh-ranked Middlesbrough will play Duke at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Maryland goes to Clemson after winning three of its last four games.

At home will be Johns Hopkins with Swarthmore and Western Maryland with Drexel. Morgan goes to Virginia Union victorious in its last three games and Maryland State to Delaware State.

Maryland encounters a Clemson team which has been winning recently, too. After losing to North Carolina and North Carolina A & T, the defending Atlantic coast Conference champions won three straight, including an impressive victory over Duke.

Navy's Talent Depth Faces Test In Duke At Baltimore

BALTIMORE—(AP)—Navy's depth in talent will come in for its most severe football test against Duke in Memorial Stadium tomorrow.

Duke is big and numerous. Coach Bill Murray of Duke likes to use sheer power to wear down an opponent if it can be done.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz has been preparing for such an eventuality, however. He has substituted two eleven freely and given a third eleven plenty of action.

The ability to do so without too much of a reduction in defensive strength, at least, has been proven the hard way.

Navy's loss of its first string right tackle, left halfback, fullback and some highly rated second stringers hasn't been noticeable.

The Middlesbrough beat Notre Dame 20-6 last week for their biggest victory in six out of seven games without the three first stringers.

Bob Reifsnnyder transferred from center back to his old tackle spot and played the best game of his varsity career which started last season. Ray Wellborn stepped into the prime fullback role and scored all three touchdowns.

Ronnie Brence, although weighing only 146 pounds, held his own at right half for the team's leading ground gainer, Ned Oldham.

Despite the shifts, Coach Erdelatz still stuck to his team substitution system and will continue it against Duke.

Lakers Pleased With Hot Rod

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (Special)—The Minneapolis Lakers, who got rid of all but four players for a new deal built around George Mikan as coach and Hot Rod Hundley as a player, are very pleased with the former West Virginia All-American.

Mikan says: "Hundley looks very good. If people will give him a chance to develop, he'll be another Cousy. He's a great passer, and like Dick McGuire (New York Knicks), he sometimes looks bad because the receiver of the pass muffs it or blows the lay-up. But he'll be great."

Hundley was the bonus choice in the National Basketball Association draft, being picked by the Cincinnati Royals who traded him to the Lakers in a deal for Clyde Lavellette and Jim Paxson.

"She used to call me the greatest football player in the world but changed it to 'the best daddy in the world' after we lost to Los Angeles and San Francisco," commented Anne.

Ralph (Tiger) Jones, Brooklyn middleweight, began boxing in the Police Athletic League.

Leaders Mark Up 2-1 Railway Wins Venezuela Horse Tests Laurel Turf

The two American entries had snappy workouts yesterday.

C. T. Chenery's Third Brother tested the turf course with a two-mile open gallop and Hasty House Farm's Mahau was galloped about a mile-and-three-quarters.

The race lost another American starter when the trainer of Eddie Schmidt declined an invitation to appear in the mile-and-a-half turf classic.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Most readers' jealousy in her mistress; should she resign?

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am only a housemaid, past 21, brought here from Europe—looking after three boys and doing all the housework. All was fine the first year; but now my employer—call her Mrs. R.—is nagging about my work, my outings, friends, everything. The only reason I can give for this change is that she is jealous.

She could be good looking if she had more taste in clothes, but she doesn't care about fashion, and I am quite the opposite. I am pretty, attractive, simple. I wear little or no make-up, don't talk much, like to be tidy, and get lots of compliments from men—but don't care for them.

Mr. R. is a very nice man who gives me English lessons once or twice a week (which he suggests); and he buys me every week a magazine or newspaper from my country—but the same for his wife also, and we trade.

In the living room she always manages to seat me far from her husband; and never leaves us together, even with the children. Once she had to be away overnight and summoned her sister-in-law to stay here.

I leave her. I shall be most grateful for your suggestions. N. N.

Mistress Frowns On Her Friends

Now I have to be home by midnight; once when I came in at 12:30 she made such a fuss that I almost stopped going out. At parties I have to watch the time and excuse myself and naturally my boy friend has to leave too.

Mrs. R. knows the boy and his family, whom I usually see on my day off—as I don't care about her husband at all, and want her to know it. But she complains if the boy rings me up, and about the noise of his car when he brings me home; so now he doesn't call any more and drops me off down the street . . .

I could give you many more instances of her sharpness and nagging. Should I stay and support all this; or go? I am supposed to stay with this family for four months yet and I don't like to break my word. Sometimes I think Mrs. R. will be happy when

Imagine Shoe On Other Foot

DEAR N. N.: Mrs. R. isn't behaving very well, I grant. But in the event you ever find yourself in her shoes—with a husband and three children, and a winsome young household helper just out of her teens, who rather preens herself as your could-be rival—I imagine that you'll perform pretty much as she has recently.

Of course the crux of the matter is that Mr. R. is the elusive trouble-factor. He is more aware of you, in a person-to-person way, than the situation, or than court-ship, calls for. And you are acknowledging his awareness, or playing up to it, with your own brand of psychological come-hither—without departing from propriety on the surface, perhaps.

Mrs. R., too, is aware of this interplay of awareness between her husband and you—and unhappy about it; and antagonistic to you because of it.

How To Make Things Easier

I think you could make things easier for yourself in the situation, if you were to put Mr. R. completely out of mind and cater exclusively to Mrs. R.—trying to please her and do right by her. By pleasing Mrs. R., I am sure you would please Mr. R. very well, too—and with none of the tension that weighs on you now.

Your bill-of-particulars (there condensed) indicates that you probably wouldn't go out of your way to avoid camaraderie with Mr. R.—which puts the burden on Mrs. R. to run interference, in ungraceful ways. This necessity, which she resents, tends to sour her feeling for you. So don't blame her, any more than yourself and Mr. R., for the breakdown of a one-time pleasant employer-employee relationship.

As for what to do, my idea is, see it through. Stay on the job for the length of time promised. And meanwhile be fair to Mrs. R.—in thought, word and act. That way you may part friends, with her good wishes, when you move on to a new situation. —M. H.
